

Washington Merged Longitudinal Administrative Data
UW Data Collaborative Data Access and Usage Agreement

Note: Only data users with prior approval by the Washington State Institutional Review Board (WSIRB) can access WMLAD data. Contact the WMLAD data manager \(wmladdata@uw.edu\) if you have not yet secured WSIRB approval.

Allowing the use of Washington Merged Longitudinal Administrative Data (WMLAD) data for research purposes represents a trust by the Washington State agencies that the researchers with access will safeguard the data by following high standards for data security and research ethics.

As part of your WSIRB approval, you have already agreed to abide by all requirements of the WMLAD confidentiality agreement between UW and the state agencies who own WMLAD data.

In agreeing to access WMLAD through the UW Data Collaborative (UWDC), you specifically agree to:

(check each box below to indicate your agreement)

- Refrain from any data use that could lead to deductive disclosure
- Plan for and abide by agency review protocols
- Share data or findings from work in progress only with other WMLAD approved users
- Store WMLAD data or derivatives thereof only on CSDE servers
- Adhere to WMLAD file structure protocols
- Contribute to building WMLAD as a public good for researchers and Washington State
- Acknowledge WMLAD, the Center for Studies in Demography & Ecology, and the UWDC in any presentations or publications derived from access to the WMLAD data

Your signature represents your agreement with these provisions as well as all requirements of the WSIRB confidentiality agreement and the UWDC.
